Ambassador Sunday School Curriculum

The Ambassador Sunday School Series systematically gives students a complete overview of the Scriptures as they move through the series. Beginning in second grade, the biblical lessons also lead students through Luther's Small Catechism, giving elementary age students a foundation for confirmation.

"Our prayer is that God's Word and the wonderful Gospel message of Jesus Christ would be effectively communicated through all the materials that we provide."

Marian Christopherson Parish Education Director

Lutheran teaching emphasizes the Gospel. Christ and the cross are the central theme of Scripture, and the power for salvation is in the Gospel.

- The Old Testament looks ahead to the promised Savior.
- The Gospels show the fulfillment of Christ as Savior of the world through His death and resurrection.
- Acts and the Epistles proclaim Christ crucified, risen, and coming again, and claim victory for the believer.
- Revelation anticipates the final victory in Christ.

At Ambassador Publications, we strive to provide you with Christ-centered curriculum and teaching resources that rightly present God's inerrant Truth. For nearly fifty years, teachers and students of all ages have enjoyed Ambassador curriculum. Here are some of the distinctives:

- upholds the authority and inerrancy of the Scriptures
- systematically covers specific topics for each grade level, so that students receive a complete overview of the Scriptures as they move through the series (Old Testament and New Testament)
- correlates in several grades with Luther's Small Catechism, which emphasizes the way of salvation, Law and Gospel, sin and grace, daily repentance and faith, and teaches the work of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
- helps students understand the significance of the Means of Grace (the Word, Baptism, and the Lord's Supper) in their daily lives
- uses New American Standard Bible Version (NASB 1995 Update)
- focuses on the Gospel as the power for salvation and sanctification
- emphasizes a growing, personal relationship with Christ, daily meditation in the Word, and Scripture memory
- nurtures believing children in their faith and calls unbelievers to receive salvation through faith in Christ
- The goal of the curriculum is spiritual life—teaching the Gospel so that individuals and congregations will be truly "free and living" in Christ

"I have enjoyed using the Ambassador Publications Sunday school material through the years because it is Biblically sound Lutheran material. The teacher's book materials are very helpful both for my personal faith and for teaching the students."

THE LORD'S PRAYER

As your students' attention span increases, so does their curiosity and ability to grasp more complex thoughts. What a crucial time to guide your children into the who, what, why, when, where, and how of prayer as Jesus Himself taught us in the Lord's Prayer.

QTR 1 - Our Father . . .

Introductory lessons help students understand what prayer is, why we pray, how we pray, who teaches us to pray, and what to pray for. Includes four lessons on the First Petition.

QTR 2 - Thy Kingdom . . .

Lessons on the Second, Third, and Fourth Petitions teach children about God's kingdom, His will, and our daily bread.

QTR 3 - Forgive Us . . .

The Sixth and Seventh Petitions and Conclusion discuss temptation and forgiveness and assure us that God is the only One who has the power to answer our prayers.

Student Book $7.00 - Teacher Manual $15.00
Pre-publication copy $5.00 (Qtrs 2 & 3)
Watch for upcoming publication of Qtrs 2 & 3.

Upcoming Curriculum

CHRIST IN THE BIBLE

(This curriculum is in the process of being developed. No date has been set for its release.)

A Fashion Designer, Champion, Firewalker, Lion, Firstborn, and Snake Crusher.

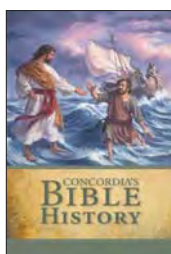

What do they have in common? Jesus.

Jesus who is the NEW and GREATER . . .

In Luke 24:27, Jesus Himself told us that the Old Testament (Moses and the prophets) is essentially about Him: "Then beginning with Moses and with all the prophets, He explained to them the things concerning Himself in all the Scriptures."

Through the progression of biblical revelation, there's one unfolding plot—the history of redemption. The whole of the Bible points to Jesus.

Confirmation Materials

FOUNDATIONS OF THE FAITH

THIS IS MOST CERTAINLY TRUE

*New Downloadable
Confirmation Curriculum*

Based on Luther's Small Catechism for its structure and using Scripture as the primary text, FOUNDATIONS OF THE FAITH 1 and 2: This Is Most Certainly True introduces confirmation-age students to faith and theology in the Lutheran tradition. FOUNDATIONS 1 is 30 lessons on the authority of Scripture, the Ten Commandments, and the Apostles' Creed, with a focus on Law and Gospel. FOUNDATIONS 2 continues the Law and Gospel emphasis with 30 lessons on the Lord's Prayer, the Sacraments, an introduction to the Lutheran confessional writings, and the Fundamental Principles of the AFLC.

Each lesson is introduced with a Bible story or passage and text intended to lead the students into the topic of the lesson. The core of each lesson is the study of Scripture as it applies to the topic. Lessons are written in such a way as to allow freedom and flexibility to the teacher. The teacher and students are encouraged to use good educational practices including collaboration, inquiry, reading, and writing. The lessons are modeled after a Cornell notes format in which students are encouraged to ask questions and write summaries of learning.

A teacher edition suggests possible answers to the questions in the student material. Also included in the teacher edition are ideas for class structure and process, ideas for introducing lessons, and ideas for supplementing conversation.

Fully downloadable and reproducible, Foundations of the Faith is intended to be versatile and adaptable for somewhat varied ages and settings. Additional instructional notes and ideas will continue to be added with future editions, and purchasers of the curriculum are entitled to free upgrades.

Foundations of the Faith 1 $75
Foundations of the Faith 2 $75

Available July 2018. View sample lessons on our website.

All confirmation students should have a Bible and a copy of Luther's Small Catechism and Explanation by H. U. Sverdrup, translated by H. A. Urseth.

Three other sets of confirmation materials are listed on this page. Together these books form a unit for two years of confirmation instruction. Other confirmation curriculum available includes Concordia's Bible History and Studies in Lutheran Doctrine as noted below.

Addicted to Mediocrity

Author Franky Schaeffer shows how Christians can begin to reverse the slide toward mediocrity by demanding excellence in the arts and media and in all areas of life by giving our time, talents and money to those things which are worthy of our support and are truly honoring to God, and by staying away from the cheap, the shoddy, and the make-a-fast-buck mentality. $13.50

Already Gone

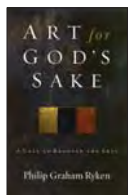

Nationwide polls and reports show that the next generation is calling it quits on the traditional church. Based on research by Britt Beemer, this book written along with Ken Ham explains why and calls the church to wake up and take action in a positive and Christ-focused way. $11.75

Correlating DVD also available for $12.95.

Are You Converted?

Norwegian Ole Hallesby was known as a Lutheran seminary dogmatics professor but also pietistic revival preacher. His concern for the conversion of souls is evidenced in this new collection of his writings. Hallesby viewed faith as "a personal and experiential awareness of the revelation of salvation in Christ given through the Word." $10.00

The Babylonian Captivity of the Church, 1520

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION

edited by Erik H. Hermann & Paul W. Robinson

Luther challenged that the papacy had distorted the sacraments with its own traditions and regulations, transforming them into a system of control and coercion and replacing the evangelical liberty of the sacramental promises that centered on the Word. $11.95

Bach Among Theologians

Jaroslav Pelikan

Although J. S. Bach is most often remembered for his music, the author reminds us of the message of Bach's works and of his understanding and devotion to his vocation within the church. Maintaining that the Reformation heritage provides the underlying thematic and religious inspiration for Bach's work, Pelikan delves into three main movements within Lutheran theology of the 17th and 18th centuries. He also points to Bach's particular interest in the meaning of the cross, and to redemption and atonement through the death and resurrection of Christ. $17.50

Baptism & Spiritual Life

Book of Family Prayer

One of the most widely used books (Husandagtsbog) for the family altar among Norwegian Lutherans in America. Originally published in 1883 and translated into English by Peer Strømme, this recent edition presents a fresh translation for today's readers by Mark DeGarmeaux. Author Nils Laache (1831-1892) was a respected Lutheran pastor in Norway. His devotions arranged according to the Church Year are filled with Christian comfort and hope and draw from early church fathers such as Augustine and Kempis and other Lutheran teachers such as Arndt. Includes many hymn stanzas of Danish and Norwegian origin, Scripture index, daily lessons for the Church Year, morning and evening prayers, and brief biographies of hymnwriters. $20.00

A Boy Meets Luther

Join the adventures of the Pine Hill family as they learn to apply the Ten Commandments, Apostles' Creed, Lord's Prayer, and Means of Grace in their daily life situations—in the mountains, through a blizzard, at the train station, going to church, in a garden, swimming, and much more. Appropriate for family devotions, story time in Sunday school, or individual reading for children. $10.00

Brand Luther

1517, PRINTING, AND THE MAKING OF THE REFORMATION

Andrew Pettegree

Luther came of age with the printing press, an invention with world-changing power that had not yet been fully realized. Noted historian Andrew Pettegree shows a new side of Luther, the world's first master of mass communication, whose pamphlets written in colloquial German and enhanced by the distinctive imagery of artist Lucas Cranach spread ideas like wildfire. $12.95

Broken

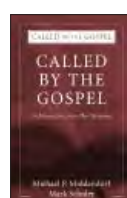

7 'CHRISTIAN' RULES THAT EVERY CHRISTIAN OUGHT TO BREAK AS OFTEN AS POSSIBLE

There are only two kinds of spirituality in the world. One is false, and one is true. This book challenges readers to think and to consider how easy it is for even sincere Christians to fall into the trap of attempting to lay a spiritual foundation on something other than God's Word. Free downloadable discussion guide and chapter video introductions. $16.95

Call to the Ministry

Johann Arndt

A PROPHET OF LUTHERAN PIETISM
For 400 years historians and theologians have been unable to come to a consensus as to where Johann Arndt (1555-1621) fits on the spectrum of orthodoxy in the Lutheran church, what age he best represented, and how he should be understood, though he is credited as being the father of Pietism. Arndt borrowed from a variety of traditions as he sought to revive the church of the Reformation on the eve of the Thirty Years' War. This volume is the first to treat exhaustively 52 letters written by Arndt and presents a fuller biographical picture of Arndt, exploring his self-understanding as a prophet of spiritual renewal in the Lutheran church. $16.95

Little Prayer Book, 1522 & A Simple Way to Pray, 1535
ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION
edited by Mary Jane Haemig & Eric Lund
This volume provides two of Martin Luther's most significant writings on prayer. In Little Prayer Book, 1522, Luther seeks to reform the theology and practice of prayer in clear and understandable language for all people by encouraging simple, direct prayer to God, who promises to hear the one who prays. Luther focuses on the Ten Commandments, Apostles' Creed, and Lord's Prayer, giving his treatment of prayer a catechetical feel that would later provide the structure of his catechisms. In A Simple Way to Pray, 1535, Luther offers his barber and all other readers insights into his own prayer life, organizing his comments around the seven petitions of the Lord's Prayer. He also uses the Ten Commandments and the Apostles' Creed as resources for prayer. He sets out to "kindle a fire in the heart" and increase the reader's eagerness for prayer. $11.95

The Lord Bless You
This inspirational book expounds and applies a familiar portion of Scripture, the Aaronic benediction: "The Lord bless you and keep you. . ." Book concludes with section of personal prayers for various times and situations. Gift book (4"x6") with presentation page, appropriate for confirmation, graduation, wedding, or those experiencing transitions in life. $7.95

Loving God with All Your Mind
Shows why Christianity is neither a wholesale rejection of intellectual life and culture nor a blind acceptance of it but rather that Christianity, compared to other worldviews, provides a superior basis for pursuing knowledge. $12.75

Luther & His World
Graham Tomlin
The world of the early reformers comes to life as the author explores their battles and disagreements and investigates their fight over correct doctrine. The result is a truly illuminating account of Martin Luther—the central figure in the Protestant Reformation—that examines his background and the circumstances that led to his rebellion against the late medieval church. $8.95

Luther and the Stories of God
BIBLICAL NARRATIVES AS A FOUNDATION FOR CHRISTIAN LIVING
Robert Kolb
Rooted in the metanarrative of God's words and deeds conveyed through the sacred Scriptures, Luther read and preached the biblical text as the record of God addressing real, flesh-and-blood people in their daily lives. He used stories of the faithful as depicted in biblical narratives to show the Christian life that includes struggling against temptation, enduring suffering, praising God in worship and prayer, and serving one's neighbor in response to God's callings and commands. $16.95

Luther and World Mission
A HISTORICAL AND SYSTEMATIC STUDY
Shaped by a critical attitude toward Luther, some scholars have misinterpreted the reformer's view of missions. This classical study by Norwegian scholar Ingemar Öberg adds new insights and information, mining a wide variety of sources within Luther's writings with great care and acumen. Especially through his focused analysis of Luther's writings on the Jews and Turks, the author demonstrates Luther's clear and passionate commitment to Gospel proclamation and world mission. $46.00

The Lutheran Difference

500TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION

edited by Edward A. Engelbrecht

What began as a popular 18-booklet Bible study series, this work gathers together all the rich content of the series, orders it around the Nicene Creed, and presents it in one accessible volume written for lay people. This book identifies how Lutherans differ from other Christians and shows from the Bible why they differ. Such information will prepare Lutherans to share their faith clearly and will help non-Lutherans understand the Lutheran difference. $29.95

The Lutherans in North America

REVISED EDITION

A sense of heritage, identity, continuity, and understanding for today's Lutherans. Readers can identify with the struggles, hopes, and frustrations of wave after wave of immigrants adapting to the strange new world of America and at the same time trying to preserve all they had known and loved and brought with them from the homeland. $38.00

Lutheran Spirituality

LIFE AS GOD'S CHILD

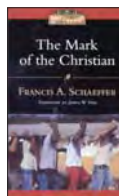

Do you want a closer relationship with God? Are there days when you feel far away from him? Explore the rich depths of eight aspects of spiritual life such as prayer, witness, and vocation, and discover how these biblical concepts and practices support your Christian walk of faith in a world full of self-made philosophies. $13.50

Lutheranism 101

If you are a lifelong Lutheran searching for more information or new to Lutheranism looking to understand what we believe, this book is a helpful guide written in an easy-to-read conversational style with short articles, side-bar features, appendices, and some humor. (Note: A few sentences in the book do not pertain specifically to the AFLC, but overall it is a very good introduction to Lutheran theology and practice.) Optional course book also available. $17.95

The Mark of the Christian

Christians have not always presented a pretty picture to the world. Too often they have failed to show the beauty of love, the beauty of Christ, the holiness of God, and the world has turned away. Is there no way to make the world look again, this time at true Christianity? $6.00

Martin Luther

THE GREAT REFORMER

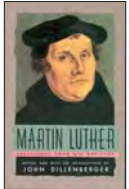

This 108-page biography provides a brief but helpful account of the great Reformation leader and author Martin Luther. Grade 6 and above. $7.95

Martin Luther REFORMER

Armin W. Schuetze

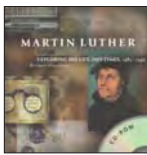

Although this book contains biographical material, it is not intended to be a chronological depiction of Luther's life. Instead biographical information and quotes are woven throughout the commentary as background material to help show what Luther represented. The author's captivating commentary will help you see the up-and-down battles of a difficult reform, reaffirm your Lutheran beliefs, and appreciate what Luther did for the church, including giving it an identity by transforming it into a confessional church. $15.95

Martin Luther

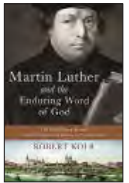

SELECTIONS FROM HIS WRITINGS
John Dillenberger

Intended for the general reader interested in gaining an overall picture of the essential insights of Luther. Includes brief introductory notes. $13.95

Martin Luther and the Enduring Word of God

THE WITTENBERG SCHOOL AND ITS
SCRIPTURE-CENTERED
PROCLAMATION

Robert Kolb

Luther's approach to the Bible drew his colleagues and contemporary followers into a Scripture-centered practice of theology and pastoral leadership. Examine the entire school of interpretation launched by Luther and see how Luther's students continued the study and spread of God's Word in subsequent generations. Filled with fresh insights and cutting-edge research, this major statement provides historical grounding for contemporary debates about the Bible. $32.95

Martin Luther and the Long Reformation

FROM RESPONSE TO REFORM IN THE CHURCH

James G. Kiecker

Sit back and enjoy the panorama of God's reforming work with His people as you learn about Luther and the Reformation within the wider historical context, both the history that preceded the 16th century and the centuries that followed the Reformation all the way to the present. $18.95

Martin Luther's Catechisms

FORMING THE FAITH

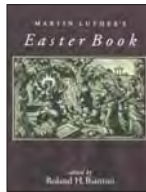

Martin Luther's catechisms—the Small Catechism in 1528-29 and the Large Catechism in spring 1529—responded in part to the “deplorable” biblical illiteracy of the day. Having rediscovered the timeless value of the catechisms himself, modern Reformation scholar Timothy Wengert demonstrates the dynamic faith exhibited in the catechisms in their original context and invites readers to “taste the catechism again for the first time.” $13.95

Martin Luther's Christmas Book

Contains 30 meditations from Luther's Christmas sermons, nine elegant illustrations by Luther's contemporaries (four by Albrecht Durer) capturing timeless scenes from the Christmas story, and two of Luther's beautiful Christmas carols. $9.75

Martin Luther's Easter Book

Sermons exploring events from Holy Week through the Resurrection portraying Luther's thoughts on faith, human imperfection, salvation through grace, and the wonder of God. Illustrated with 18 woodcuts by Virgil Solis, a contemporary of Luther's. May be read as a daily devotional during Lent and Easter. $9.75

Martin Luther's 95 Theses

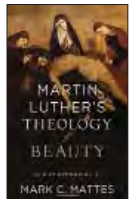

Celebrate the richness of Reformation theology with your own copy of the 95 theses, now available in a special 500th anniversary reader's edition. The theses reflect Luther's concern for certainty of salvation. As stated in what has been called the noblest of the theses, “the true treasure of the church is the most holy gospel of the glory and grace of God” (Thesis 62).

Pack of 10 $9.95

Martin Luther's Ninety-Five Theses

An illuminating introduction plus helpful explanatory notes by Stephen J. Nichols put Luther's classic statement, which deserves to be read widely, into everyone's reach. $3.50

Martin Luther's Theology of Beauty

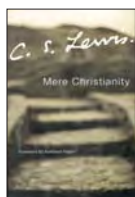

A REAPPRAISAL

While Martin Luther's view of beauty has often been ignored or underappreciated, it has much to contribute to that quest. Mark Mattes, one of today's leading Lutheran theologians, analyzes Luther's theological aesthetics and discusses its implications for music, art, and the contemplative life, and shows that for Luther, the cross is the lens through which the beauty of God is refracted into the world. $28.95

Mentoring

Eight succinct chapters show how mentoring took place in the Bible—with Old Testament and New Testament figures—and how to apply these lessons today. $9.00

Mere Christianity

C. S. Lewis

Missionary Chronicles

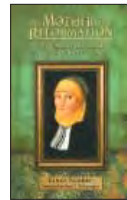

Follow the lives of Christian missionaries around the world through 43 short stories. A helpful resource for family devotions, opening chapel time, and Sunday school classrooms. Includes discussion questions, maps, mission hymns, and creative ideas for teaching missions to children. $10.00

Modern Fascism

THE THREAT TO THE JUDEO-CHRISTIAN WORLDVIEW

Explores fascist influences that continue to permeate modern culture and thought. Through a skillful combination of historical narrative, cultural criticism, and theological analysis, Veith demonstrates how fascism, perhaps unknowingly, affects our thinking. But Veith also offers guidance and hope for those shaken by ideological crosscurrents as he convincingly demonstrates that Christian theology does not stifle the truth. $17.00

Mother of the Reformation

THE AMAZING LIFE AND STORY OF KATHARINE LUTHER

An intimate picture of Katie and of family life in the Black Cloister during the formative years of the Reformation, showing how Katie's marriage to Martin Luther was a multifaceted vocation.

This readable, fresh translation of one of the standard biographical works on Katie Luther presents a compelling portrait for those desiring to know more about this quietly influential Reformation character. $19.95

More Than a Carpenter

Written by a former skeptic of Christianity, this is a hard-hitting book for those who doubt Jesus' deity, resurrection, and purpose. A timeless examination of the nature of Christ and His impact on our lives. $6.95 cultural pursuits as worldly.

Establishes a strong Biblical context for understanding expressions of human creativity, powerfully defends art as a gift from God, and suggests ways to counter the decadence and corruption that plagues the contemporary art world. $15.25

Sticky Faith

YOUTH WORKERS EDITION

Recent studies show that 40-50 percent of kids connected to a youth group throughout their senior year fail to stick with their faith in college. With the extensive research of Fuller Youth Institute, this book presents youth workers with both a theological/philosophical framework and practical programming ideas to encourage development of long-term faith in teenagers and assist in graduates' transition to college. $13.50

Straight Talk

ANSWERS FROM GOD'S WORD
Formatted in an easy-to-read Q&A style, readers find answers to more than 100 common questions people have about the Bible and Christian life including relationships, witnessing, living for God, death and heaven, and tough teachings. $8.95

Symbols of the Church

Describes hundreds of symbols of the Christian faith. Includes a drawing of each symbol along with a paragraph describing the origin, present meaning, and use. The meaning of denominational emblems and a description of the seasons and colors of the Church Year are also provided. $5.75

Teaching the Faith at Home

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN? HOW IS THIS DONE?
After assessing current trends in the faith development of youth, the author wrote this book to reveal why teaching the catechism early in the home is key in keeping families connected to the Church. Part 1 focuses on laying a foundation for understanding the history, purpose, and theological reasons for catechesis. Part 2 is a practical look at strategies and models for catechetical instruction that can be shared at church and used in the home. $17.95

The Theology of the Cross

REFLECTIONS ON HIS CROSS & OURS
Many people tend to overlook the cross and its demands and instead focus on the glory they think they should now enjoy because they call themselves Christians. The author helps us to see Christ's cross as our cross, warns us of Satan's efforts to turn us from Christ to ourselves, and comforts us with the assurance that the cross of Christ leads to heavenly glory. $19.50

The Theology of the Cross for the 21st Century

A collection of essays that explores the significance of Martin Luther's theology of the cross within the context of the various world religions and philosophies. $18.95

Theology of the Lutheran Confessions

A translation by Edmund Schlink of Theologie Der Lutherischen Bekennnisschriften, this book points to Scripture as the basis of the Lutheran Confessions, which are the church's summary exposition of Scripture. $35.00

A Theology to Live By

This book assumes that Luther's doctrine, however "abstract" some might consider parts of it to be, is practical in its entirety. From creation, to the fall, to life under the cross, Preus shows that the story of salvation is knit together as one garment, so that we rejoice in the fullness of that which we have received. $12.75

They Lived in the Power of God

LUTHERAN REVIVAL LEADERS IN NORTHERN EUROPE

Translated from Finnish, this collection of biographical writings
by Lutheran scholar, Dr. Uuras Saarnivaara, reflects the European heritage of Lutheran congregations in America and includes individuals from Germany, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, and Finland, who have significantly impacted spiritual life among Lutherans between 1500 and 1950, such as Hallesby, Hauge, Rosenius, and others. Volume III in the AFLC
Heritage Series. $20.00

This Is My Body

Explores Luther's conviction of the real presence of Christ in the Sacrament of Communion. Sasse documents Luther's interpretation of Scripture as the source of his teachings on the Lord's Supper and contrasts it with opposing views. $22.95

Threads of Grace

The daily fabric of our lives is woven with threads of expectations and commitments, laughter and tears, joy and discouragement, mundane routine and unpredictable events. In the midst of all this, the unbroken thread entwined throughout the life of the believer is the thread of God's grace in Christ. This collection of daily meditations taken from 25 years of AFLC bulletin articles was published in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the AFLC. Bulk pricing discount of $3.00 per book for 10 or more copies. Leather bound hardcover $18.00 Softcover $12.00

To All Eternity

THE ESSENTIAL TEACHINGS OF CHRISTIANITY Beautifully illustrated devotional edition of the most popular summary of the Christian faith ever written: Martin Luther's Small Catechism. Helps believers—both new and seasoned—connect the most foundational beliefs of Christianity to everyday life. Stirring meditations supplemented with fine works of art by Michelangelo, Holbein, Gauguin, Dali, and others, along with art appreciation notes. Includes instructions for use as a Lenten or one-year devotional. Ideal gift for newly confirmed youth or adults new to the church. $17.50

To the Christian Nobility of the German Nation, 1520

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION edited by James M. Estes & Timothy J. Wengert

With clarity and insight, the editors illuminate Luther's call to secular authorities to help with the reform of the church in this important treatise. To combat Rome's intransigent opposition to reform of any sort, Luther appealed to secular rulers to intervene and clear the way for ecclesiastical reform. $11.95

Translating Truth

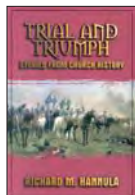

Which translation do I choose? In an age when there is a wide choice of English Bible translations, it may be difficult to decide. This book helps readers understand what makes a "good" translation and explains the differences between literal versions and other alternatives. $13.50

Treatise on Good Works, 1520

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION edited by Timothy J. Wengert In sermons and pamphlets, Luther and his colleagues claimed that salvation came by faith alone and not by works. Luther's main goal in this treatise was to commend a new, down-to-earth piety to all Christians. This piety was new because at its center was a radically different meaning of good works that would transform the way believers practiced their faith. With new introductions, annotations, illustrations, and notes to help shed light on Luther's context and to interpret his writings for today. $11.95

Trial and Triumph

STORIES FROM CHURCH HISTORY This collection of 46 brief biographies shows the stirring trials and triumphs of many famous and lesser known fathers and mothers of our faith, including Augustine, Charlemagne, Luther, Tyndale, Bunyan, Livingstone, C. S. Lewis, and many others. Appropriate for family reading. $16.00

True Christianity

Johann Arndt Classic writing by this 16th century German Lutheran mystic who emphasized living Christianity and taught that God will not bring forth dead fruit. Originally printed in six volumes, this edition includes the first book and excerpts from books two through six. $20.75

True Christianity-Book 1

John Arndt "I desired to show that we bear the name of Christians, not only because we ought to believe in Christ, but also because the name implies that we live in Christ, and that He lives in us." A treatise on sincere repentance, true faith, and the holy walk of the true Christian. $10.00

True Worshipers

SEEKING WHAT MATTERS TO GOD The question is not "Are you a worshiper?" but rather "What kind of a worshiper are you?" Rooted in the gospel of grace and filled with practical application, this book aims to connect Sunday morning to the rest of your life—helping you fulfill your calling to be a true worshiper every day. $9.95

Unceasing Worship

BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVES ON WORSHIP AND THE ARTS Often Christians have only thought of worship in terms of particular musical styles or liturgical formats. But a proper view of worship is far larger than what takes place in churches on Sunday mornings. Worship is not limited to specific times, places, or activities. All of us, Christian or not, are always worshipping, whether or not that worship is directed toward God. We are unceasing worshipers. Addresses misunderstandings about the use of music and offers correctives toward a more biblically consistent practice of artistic action. $14.95

The Unholy Trinity

MARTIN LUTHER AGAINST THE IDOL OF ME, MYSELF, AND I Drawing on Luther's key insights on the theology of idolatry, Lockwood unmasks contemporary idol worship and its futility. Luther's unparalleled ability to get to the heart of human sin helps us see through the lie of self-sufficiency. Only when walls of manmade security are broken down can we hear the Gospel as good news. A helpful resource for pastors, with practical suggestions for pastoral care and evangelistic outreach. $15.75

Walking on Water

REFLECTIONS ON FAITH AND ART These meditations on the nature of art and its relation to faith take a fresh look at what it means to be a Christian artist and what separates Christian art from that which is supposedly secular. $14.95

The Way of the Master

What happens when a gospel of happiness is preached rather than of righteousness? Looking for a better life, many people have some kind of "religious experience" without ever being confronted with their sin. This book emphasizes the necessity of Law in evangelism to bring conviction of sin and show our hopelessness apart from Christ. Book with CD $12.75

What Is Marriage Really?

Martin Luther lays out what marriage truly is, how it is maintained, and how it is joyously lived. A wonderful book for those already married or contemplating marriage. Study questions included at the end of each chapter. $8.00

What Jesus Means to Me

What Luther Says

compiled by Ewald Plass More than 5000 of Martin Luther's quotations taken from his writing, alphabetically and topically arranged for quick reference. $43.95

What's Going on Among the Lutherans?

Includes doctrinal comparisons of the different branches of the Lutheran Church in America and valuable sections on the strengths of Lutheran church bodies in America. $21.95

What Is Vocation?

For some people, work is tedious and boring—something to endure until the weekend. For others, work is everything and consumes them and their time. The former find no meaning or satisfaction in their jobs, the latter find too much—both lack an eternal perspective, a biblical framework through which they can evaluate what they spend most of their lives doing. This booklet explains the meaning of vocation and how work as ordained by God has meaning and purpose. $4.95

When Lightning Struck!

THE STORY OF MARTIN LUTHER Martin Luther's life was too exciting not to be written for younger readers. In this fast-paced, action-packed novel, teen readers (and adults) will be introduced to a fascinating time when princes ruled Europe and knights roamed the countryside. But this book is far more than just an adventure story. It also tells a theological story, helping readers understand how powerfully liberating Luther's idea of grace through faith was—in his time and in ours! $12.95

When You Pray

MAKING THE LORD'S PRAYER
YOUR OWN

Looks at the power and truth within each phrase of The Lord's Prayer and encourages believers that the more we study this model prayer and "the more we pray, the more deeply we are drawn into communion with God." Includes a complete study guide. $12.50

Where Christ Is Present

A THEOLOGY FOR ALL SEASONS
ON THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION

edited by John Warwick

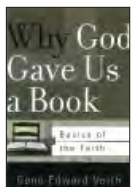

Montgomery & Gene Edward Veith
Five hundred years ago, the Christian church underwent a Reformation as Luther

re-emphasized its essence—namely, the "good news" of the Gospel that Jesus forgives and saves sinners. Some issues and challenges in contemporary Christianity are similar to those in the late Middle Ages. The remedies offered in this book are available by way of the same theology that was the catalyst for reforming the church 500 years ago. $19.95

Why Do We Have Creeds?

Christians are defined by our beliefs, yet sometimes it is difficult to explain what we believe and why. This booklet emphasizes that not only are beliefs important to know, but also to explain and defend. It also explores historic creeds and confessions and tells why they are still valuable in our postmodern society. $4.95

Why God Gave Us a Book

Sometimes people look within themselves, mining their thoughts and feelings for "the voice of God." And yet God has already spoken through His written Word, and this communication keeps us personally connected to Him. We need nothing else. Author Gene Veith makes this clear as he examines not only the sufficiency of God's Word but also the flawed thinking of those who try to add to or detract from it. This booklet is a call for all Christians to return to God's Word as our one and only authority in faith and practice. $4.95

Why I Am a Lutheran

JESUS AT THE CENTER

"I am a Lutheran for the same reason I am a Christian. It is not by choice but by grace. The teachings of the Lutheran church place Jesus at the center because the teachings of the Scriptures place Jesus at the center."

Through a blend of understandable explanations and real-life stories, this book explores the foundational teachings of the Christian church. $12.75

Why the Reformation Still Matters

Michael Reeves & Tim Chester

A German monk nailing a poster to the door of a church, disputing key doctrines taught by the Roman Catholic Church in that day, set in motion a movement that changed the trajectory of church history. This accessible primer answers 11 key questions raised by the Reformers—questions that remain critically important for the church today. $12.95

Wittenberg vs. Geneva

A BIBLICAL BOUT IN

SEVEN ROUNDS ON THE DOCTRINES THAT DIVIDE

What are the differences between Lutherans and Calvinists, and do they really matter? A biblical defense of the key doctrines that have divided the Lutheran and Reformed traditions for nearly five centuries, focusing upon the crucial scriptural texts that have led Lutheran and Reformed scholars down different paths to disparate conclusions. Especially written to help those who have an interest in the Lutheran church. $14.95

The Word of God in English

Describes translation principles that make for reliable English Bible translation and looks at common translation fallacies. Offers principles for good translation and standards for comparing contemporary Bible translations to evaluate whether or not they faithfully render the Word of God into English. $14.00

Worship As Repentance

LUTHERAN LITURGICAL TRADITIONS
AND CATHOLIC CONSENSUS

Against contemporary trends that conceive of Christian worship primarily as entertainment or sheer celebration, Walter Sundberg argues that repentance is the heart of authentic worship. Outlines the history of repentance and confession within liturgical practice from the Early Church to 20th-century Protestantism, advocating "penitential piety" of older traditions of Protestant worship. $13.50

Worship Matters

LEADING OTHERS TO ENCOUNTER
THE GREATNESS OF GOD

Focusing on essentials of God-honoring worship and combining biblical foundations with practical application, this book instructs pastors, musicians, and church leaders so they can root their congregational worship in unchanging scriptural principles, not divisive cultural trends. $11.95

God's Children Never Die

WORDS OF COMFORT AS I FACE THE END OF MY LIFE

At different stages in our lives, we may react to the thought of death in different ways—with a shrug of our shoulders, with a frown, with a burden of worry, with tears, or with fear and anger. No matter what our thoughts of death may be at the moment, God comes to us in His Word to embrace us with His promises. $5.50

Help Me, Lord

COMFORT AS I PREPARE FOR MY LOVED ONE'S DEATH

How can we accept the death of someone we love and go on living without them? Written especially for those who are flooded with questions and emotions as a loved one nears death. $5.50

When Jesus Is There

WORDS OF COMFORT TO HELP ME ENDURE MY SORROWS

Written especially for those who have experienced loss for a variety of reasons. Topics include child's serious illness, divorce, job loss, economic loss, loss of physical abilities, fear of losing faith. Some of the more serious losses may paralyze our emotions and send us into shock. Others leave us angry, hurt, or confused. God's Word assures us in our times of loss, God has not forsaken us. $5.50

With Tears in Our Eyes

GOD'S COMFORT AS I GRIEVE THE DEATH OF MY LOVED ONE

The circumstances don't seem to matter. Whether it was the result of a sudden accident or a lingering illness, whether it was a child or an aged grandmother, whether we had anticipated many more years together or had prayed that God would take our loved one soon, the death of a loved one brings profound grief. Now what? In the dark hours of grief, what a friend we have in Jesus! $5.50

Footprints of the Faithful

FIFTY YEARS OF THE AFLC MISSION IN BRAZIL

From a primitive Brazilian frontier through western expansion and to the developing cities, God prepared the groundwork, provided workers to plant the seed, and brought about growth in Christ through the Word of God. Though fifty years of mission work have certainly brought challenges, unforeseen circumstances, grief and loss, there is cause for celebration as these historic accounts demonstrate God's hand, guiding, sustaining, and expanding the work of AFLC-Brazil to the present. $20.00

"How good to find in our Lord renewed strength and true encouragement! It is in 'waiting on the Lord' through His nourishing Word that we are enabled to press on. The promises of God, centered in His forgiving grace in Christ, are what sustain us. Through these gracious promises, the Holy Spirit strengthens our faith. We are helped to look above the circumstances of life to the One who holds us securely in His gracious care."

—Dr. Francis W. Monseth

From the July 9, 1991, issue of The Lutheran Ambassador.

A collection of varied writings by the late Dr. Francis W. Monseth, former Dean of the Free Lutheran Seminary, is being prepared for publication and includes reprinted articles from The Lutheran Ambassador, The Servant Pastor, The Sverdrup Journal, and more. Bach Among Theologians

Jaroslav Pelikan

Although J. S. Bach is most often remembered for his music, the author reminds us of the message of Bach's works and of his understanding and devotion to his vocation within the church. Maintaining that the Reformation heritage provides the underlying thematic and religious inspiration for Bach's work, Pelikan delves into three main movements within Lutheran theology of the 17th and 18th centuries. He also points to Bach's particular interest in the meaning of the cross, and to redemption and atonement through the death and resurrection of Christ. $17.50

Through a series of brief chapters, this booklet traces some of the links between the AFLC and the LFC in an attempt to help us better understand our common heritage. Born as a result of Georg Sverdrup and Sven Oftedal's undying passion to build "a free church in a free land," the Lutheran Free Church was established in the late nineteenth century, and its principles and practices continue to guide the AFLC today. This book is a compilation of articles that first appeared in The Lutheran Ambassador. $3.00

Luther's Catechism Illustrated

The Ten Commandments

I am the LORD thy God.

Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maid-servant, nor his cattle, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Means of Grace

The Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is an earthly water, into which is poured the Word of God, and thus it becomes the sacrament of the new birth.

The Sacrament of the Altar

The Lord's Supper is the true body and blood of Jesus Christ, who is crucified for us, and is given to us in bread and wine.

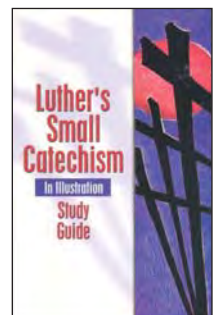

The Word of God

The Word is the divine Word which is written in the Bible.

The Word is the divine Word which is written in the Bible.

*Ambassador Publications is the Parish Education Department of the Association of Free Lutheran Congregations.
Ambassador Publications exists for the purpose of serving the local congregation by providing biblical educational and devotional resources to encourage diligent and faithful teaching of the Word of God in homes and churches.*

*The AFLC believes the Lutheran Confessions to be the correct summary of biblical teaching.
We believe the faithful application of Lutheran theology will result in biblical, personal, living Christianity.*

Free informational catalogs and brochure available upon request.
