

The Blind man sees

John 9:1-41

As Jesus was walking with His disciples, He saw a man sitting by the side of the road begging. The man was blind and hadn't been able to see anything since birth.

Jesus spit on the dirt and made a little mud. He rubbed the mud on the man's eyes. "Go to the pool of water named Siloam and wash off the mud," Jesus told him. The man obeyed. He went to the pool and washed. His eyes were healed. He could see!

Memory verse

Oh give thanks to the LORD,
for He is good, for
His lovingkindness is everlasting.

Psalm 107:1

His neighbors couldn't believe that it was the same man. Some asked, "Isn't this the man who used to sit and beg?"

Others said, "No, he looks just like him."

But the man said, "I am the one who was blind."

"What happened?" the people asked.

The man told the people how Jesus had healed his eyes. Later, Jesus helped the man to believe in Him, and the man worshiped Jesus.
