Celebrating the 500th Anniversary of the REFORMATION

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther fastened his 95 Theses to the Wittenberg Castle Church door, challenging papal authority and the practice of selling indulgences. Throughout 2017, events around the world commemorate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation.

Luther is known for his emphasis on the authority of the Scriptures and his teaching of justification by faith in Christ alone. But Luther also made significant contributions to hymnody, being credited with 37 hymns and the restoration of congregational singing in the worship service. The chief function of music for Luther was the proclamation of the Word of God, and especially the clear Gospel message. Through his hymns, written in the language of the people rather than Latin, and through his translation of the Bible into German, the Gospel became accessible to the common people, and the Word and the Spirit brought about spiritual reformation.

The booklet 12 Reformation Hymns by Martin Luther helps congregations teach and sing Luther's hymns throughout the year. This collection of hymns with brief historic introductions can be used as a personal devotional resource, but also in the church, focusing on one hymn each month or altogether in a special service of Reformation hymns. Consider providing a copy for each family in your congregation and placing them in your church next to your hymnals for regular use. $2.00 each

The Five and 500 Protestant Reformation flier explains what Martin Luther and the Reformation were all about and the significance and meaning for us still today. This colorful and informative teaching tool is designed for upper elementary through adults and would be beneficial for every family in your congregation. $.75 each

The Ten Commandments

I am the LORD thy God.

I
Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

III
Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

IV Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

VI
Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VII
Thou shalt not steal.

VIII
Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

IX
Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house.

X
Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidser-vant, nor his cattle, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father
Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Means of Grace

The Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is not simply water, but it is the water used according to God's command and accompanied with God's Word.

"We therefore make thought of all the nations, that they may be baptized in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and that they may be saved."

The Sacrament of the Altar

The Lord's Supper is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, under the bread and wine, given unto us Christians to eat and drink, as it was instituted by Christ Himself.

And when the food taken unto bread and wine, the body and blood of Christ are made present to us in the Supper, we are made partakers of the body and blood of Christ, and are united to Him and His church, and are saved by His blood.

The Word of God

The Law is the divine Word which tells us
what we must do.

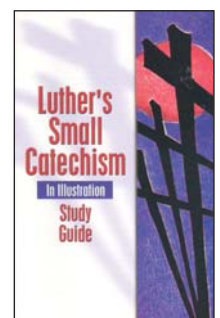

"The Law is the divine Word which tells us what we must do. It is the power of God which makes us sinners, and it is the power of God which makes us righteous."

"The Gospel is the glad tidings of the grace of God in Jesus Christ our Savior."

"The Gospel is the glad tidings of the grace of God in Jesus Christ our Savior. It is the power of God which makes us sinners, and it is the power of God which makes us righteous."

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY SERIES

Luther's writings in this series are enhanced with new introductions, extensive annotations, illustrations, and notes to help shed light on Luther's context and to interpret the writings for today. The translations of Luther's writings include updates of Luther's Works—American Edition or new translations of Luther's German or Latin writings.

The Babylonian Captivity of the Church, 1520

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION
edited by Erik H. Hermann
& Paul W. Robinson

Luther challenged that the papacy had distorted the sacraments with its own traditions and regulations, transforming them into a system of control and coercion and replacing the evangelical liberty of the sacramental promises that centered on the Word. $11.95

The Bondage of the Will, 1525

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION
(ABRIDGED) edited by Volker Leppin
& Kirsi I. Stjerna

Luther's treatise written as a response to humanist and theologian Erasmus of Rotterdam's On Free Will stresses his denial of the free will pertaining to the issue of salvation. His argument on the matter of the bound and free will poses a challenge and an invitation for constructive contemporary theology. $11.95

The Freedom of a Christian, 1520

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION
edited by Timothy J. Wengert

With new introductions, illustrations, and notes, the editor skillfully provides a clear understanding of the content and historical context from which this important treatise and the accompanying Letter to Pope Leo X arose. $11.95

The Large Catechism of Dr. Martin Luther, 1529

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION
edited by Kirsi I. Stjerna

With great detail, the editor introduces and annotates Luther's Large Catechism, which the reformer offered as a radical reorientation in matters of theology and spirituality. The sweeping reforms he proposed took root primarily through preaching and education, as he believed all

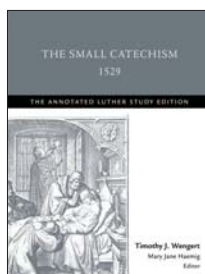

Christian people—laity and clergy—needed a guide to comprehend the basic biblical, credal, and sacramental teachings. $11.95

Little Prayer Book, 1522, and A Simple Way to Pray, 1535

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION
edited by Mary Jane Haemig
& Eric Lund

This volume provides two of Martin Luther's most significant writings on prayer. In Little Prayer Book, 1522, Luther seeks to reform the theology and practice of prayer in clear and understandable language for all people by encouraging simple, direct prayer to God, who promises to hear the one who prays. Luther focuses on the Ten Commandments, Apostles' Creed, and Lord's Prayer, giving his treatment of prayer a catechetical feel that would later provide the structure of his catechisms. In A Simple Way to Pray, 1535, Luther offers his barber and all other readers insights into his own prayer life, organizing his comments around the seven petitions of the Lord's Prayer. He also uses the Ten Commandments and the Apostles' Creed as resources for prayer. He sets out to "kindle a fire in the heart" and increase the reader's eagerness for prayer. $11.95

The Small Catechism, 1529

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION
edited by Timothy J. Wengert
& Mary Jane Haemig

Luther wrote the catechism to explain the basics of Christian faith as a response to his 1528 visitation of parishes in Saxony and Meissen, where he discovered an abysmal level of Christian instruction. This edition provides detailed background into the development of Luther's popular Small Catechism. Also includes Luther's own preface to the 1531 edition, the Sacrament of Baptism, Sacrament of the Altar, instructions to the head of the household, household chart of Bible passages, marriage booklet for pastors, and baptismal booklet. $11.95

To the Christian Nobility of the German Nation, 1520

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION
edited by James M. Estes
& Timothy J. Wengert

With clarity and insight, the editors illuminate Luther's call to secular authorities to help with the reform of the church in this important treatise. To combat Rome's intransigent opposition to reform of any sort, Luther appealed to secular rulers to intervene and clear the way for ecclesiastical reform. $11.95

Treatise on Good Works, 1520

ANNOTATED LUTHER STUDY EDITION
edited by Timothy J. Wengert

In sermons and pamphlets, Luther and his colleagues claimed that salvation came by faith alone and not by works. Luther's main goal in this treatise was to commend a new, down-to-earth piety to all Christians. This piety was new because at its center was a radically different meaning of good works that would transform the way believers practiced their faith. With new introductions, annotations, illustrations, and notes to help shed light on Luther's context and to interpret his writings for today. $11.95

LUTHERAN PRESS POPULAR SERIES

Each book in this series contains a newly translated work of Martin Luther cut into short sentences and chapters to facilitate understandability. For readers new to Luther's writings, this is a good place to start, but more advanced readers will also find benefit.

Study questions included at the end of each chapter encourage personal study and provide a framework for small or large group studies. An extensive afterword gives both the historical and theological background of the work at hand. The value of these books has been recognized internationally as many have been translated and are being used in China, India, South America, and Africa.

This Luther biography helps readers learn about Luther and the Reformation in an enjoyable format. Includes extensive history timeline and explanation of Luther's Seal. $9.95

Luther

BIOGRAPHY OF A REFORMER

Frederick Nohl

Martin Luther had one goal: peace with God. Journey through the adventurous, often dangerous life of this man of God. Luther knew his weaknesses and sin only too well but all the more clung to his Savior,

Jesus Christ. Includes full-color pictures from the Luther movie! $12.00

Available in Spanish by special order.

Luther & His World

Graham Tomlin

The world of the early reformers comes to life as the author explores their battles and disagreements and investigates their fight over correct doctrine. The result is a truly illuminating account of Martin Luther—the central figure in the Protestant Reformation—that examines his background and the circumstances that led to his rebellion against the late medieval church. $8.95

Luther and the Stories of God

BIBLICAL NARRATIVES

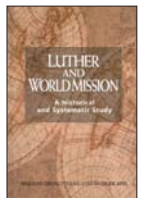

AS A FOUNDATION FOR

CHRISTIAN LIVING

Robert Kolb

Rooted in the metanarrative of God's words and deeds conveyed through the sacred Scriptures,

Luther read and preached the biblical text as the record of God addressing real, flesh-and-blood people in their daily lives. He used stories of the faithful as depicted in biblical narratives to show the Christian life that includes struggling against temptation, enduring suffering, praising God in worship and prayer, and serving one's neighbor in response to God's callings and commands. $16.95

Luther and World Mission

A HISTORICAL AND

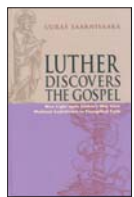

SYSTEMATIC STUDY

Ingemar Öberg

Shaped by a critical attitude toward Luther, some scholars have misinterpreted the reformer's view of missions. This classical study by

Norwegian scholar Ingemar Öberg adds new insights and information, mining a wide variety of sources within Luther's writings with great care and acumen. Especially through his focused analysis of Luther's writings on the Jews and Turks, the author demonstrates Luther's clear and passionate commitment to Gospel proclamation and world mission. $46.00

Lutheran church musicians of the early 21st century. $29.00

On Christian Liberty

"A Christian is a perfectly free lord of all, subject to none. A Christian is a perfectly dutiful servant of all, subject to all." One of Luther's most famous treatises that makes clear that a believing Christian is free from sin through faith in God, yet bound by love to serve his neighbor. $9.50

Our Way Home

A JOURNEY THROUGH THE LORD'S PRAYER

Daniel Paavola

When you pray, you stand at the door to the Father's house and knock. But do you dare to hope the door will open? We're often hesitant to believe that our small voices will be heard by the sovereign God reigning in heaven, hesitant to think we even have the right words to say. The author invites you on a vivid journey through the Lord's Prayer to dispel your hesitancy and discover the power, beauty, and depth of the world's most famous prayer. $9.95

Praying Luther's Small Catechism

John T. Pless

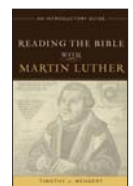

You, your family, and the church are invited to return to the riches of this treasure. Beyond its purpose as a handbook and outline of Christian teachings, Luther's Small Catechism is also a prayer book for every age, anchoring you in God's Word where the expansive skies of His mercy in Christ are wide and wonderfully never-ending. The carefully written words of the catechism offer both depth and simplicity for your meditation, accessible to the beginner learning the ABCs and valuable for stirring the hearts and minds of the wisest. $6.95

Reading Romans with Luther

R. J. Grunewald

Step into Luther's commentary on Romans without intimidation. Even though he taught about the Book of Romans half a millennium ago, his writings have everything to do with your life today. The grace God shows you is a gift, not something you need to earn, and Luther shows this again and again. Organized by significant themes in Romans, this book offers highlights and insights from Luther's commentary. $10.95

Reading the Bible with Martin Luther

AN INTRODUCTORY GUIDE

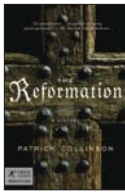

Timothy J. Wengert

Europe and knights roamed the countryside. But this book is far more than just an adventure story. It also tells a theological story, helping readers understand how powerfully liberating Luther's idea of grace through faith was—in his time and in ours! $12.95

Where Christ Is Present

A THEOLOGY FOR ALL SEASONS ON THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION

edited by John Warwick Montgomery

& Gene Edward Veith

Five hundred years ago, the Christian church underwent a Reformation as Luther re-emphasized its essence—namely, the "good news" of the Gospel that Jesus forgives and saves sinners. Some issues and challenges in contemporary Christianity are similar to those in the late Middle Ages. The remedies offered in this book are available by way of the same theology that was the catalyst for reforming the church 500 years ago. $19.95

Why I Am a Lutheran

JESUS AT THE CENTER

"I am a Lutheran for the same reason I am a Christian. It is not by choice but by grace. The teachings of the Lutheran church place Jesus at the center because the teachings of the Scriptures place Jesus at the center." Through a blend of understandable explanations and real-life stories, this book explores the foundational teachings of the Christian church. $12.75

Why the Reformation Still Matters

Michael Reeves & Tim Chester

A German monk nailing a poster to the door of a church, disputing key doctrines taught by the Roman Catholic Church in that day, set in motion a movement that changed the trajectory of church history. This accessible primer answers 11 key questions raised by the Reformers—questions that remain critically important for the church today. $12.95

In a world ruled by a corrupt and greedy church, one little nail, one well-written parchment, and one sharp-tongued monk turned everything upside down! Martin Luther didn't set out to spark the Reformation with his 95 Theses, but his realization that salvation comes through faith and not works ignited the revolution that changed the world. Will Luther have the courage to stand strong? Find out in this episode of the Torchlighters, commemorating the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Ages 8-12. Includes English and Spanish; downloadable leader guide and student activity pages. DVD $14.95

MARTIN LUTHER: THE IDEA THAT CHANGED THE WORLD

Coming to Theaters Near You!

Five hundred years ago, Martin Luther triggered a seismic upheaval that rocked the western world—with an impact that continues to reverberate to this day. This entertaining new film follows the great adventure story of Luther's life, packed with political intrigue, kidnappings, secret hideouts, and life-or-death showdowns. At the same time, it's a story about the most important questions of life, including “Who am I?” and “What is my purpose?” and “How do I get right with God?”

Funded by a grant from Thrivent Financial, the film brings to life the dramatic moments that shaped Luther. It's a must-see for any lifelong Lutheran and a chance to share our Lutheran heritage with others—the Gospel-centered message of justification by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. This is the first time in more than sixty years that Lutherans have made a feature-length film about Martin Luther and the Reformation. Several Reformation scholars and historians were involved in the production. Filmed in historic locations across Europe, the movie brings to life Luther's story and the birth of the Protestant Reformation with exquisite attention to detail.

Martin Luther: The Idea That Changed the World is playing in select locations around the country. To see the dates, times, and locations of these screenings, go to <http://newluthermovie.com/index.html> and select Get Tickets.
