

Answers for Quarter 1, Lesson 10

1. The centurion wanted Jesus to speak authoritatively and heal his servant (from a distance) who was seriously ill.
2. Jesus said, “Truly I say to you, I have not found such great faith with anyone in Israel.”
3. Jesus told the centurion to go on his way and that the healing would take place as he had believed. The centurion’s servant was healed “that very moment.”
4. Jesus’ authority over the body is seen in the miracle of healing the servant in that even a very serious illness is driven from the body by Jesus’ power.
5. Jesus got up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Hush, be still.”
6. The wind died down and it became perfectly calm.
7. Jesus’ authority over nature is seen in the miracle of the calming of the sea in that even the powerful forces of nature submit to Him as He commands them.
8. The demon acknowledged that Jesus was “the Holy One of God.”
9. Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet and come out of him!”
10. Even though the demon had thrown the man down in the midst of the people, he came out of him without doing him any harm.
11. The people acknowledged that with authority and power Jesus commands the unclean spirits and they obey.
12. Jesus’ authority over demons is seen in this miracle of deliverance in that the powerful demonic forces must submit to Him and to His Word.
13. Jesus told them, “The child has not died, but is asleep.” (Jesus meant that the child’s death was not permanent.)
14. Jesus said, “Talitha kum!” (which translated means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”).
15. Immediately the girl got up and began to walk.
16. Jesus’ authority over death is seen in this miracle of the raising to life of a twelve year old girl in that even the power of death must submit to Him and to His Word.
17. Individual answers will vary.
18. The examples of Jesus’ authority help me to trust Him more as I recognize that no problem—no matter how great it seems—is too hard for Him to overcome for me.

Catechism Corner

1. He governs and keeps His children and defends them against their enemies.
2. It signifies that He shares also as true man in the power and glory of God and rules over all things.
3. Knowing that Jesus rules over all things should help me to not fear, worry, or be anxious; but to rest in peace, trusting Him to protect me and provide what I need.
