

Answers for Quarter 1, Lesson 9

1. wise man and a foolish man
2. The wise man is compared to the person who hears God's Word and does what it says. He has a solid foundation on which to build and live his life.
3. The foolish man is compared to the person who hears the Word of God and does not act on it. He who builds his life ignoring Jesus' teachings has no solid foundation on which to build and live his life.
4. Jesus taught as one having authority.
5. The people were amazed at His teaching.
6. The people found Jesus' teaching difficult to accept, and many disciples no longer followed Him.
7. Jesus appointed the apostles so that they would be with Him as He taught them and then send them out to preach of God's love and have authority to cast out demons.
8. Jesus' disciples were to "make disciples" by baptizing and teaching.
9. 1- "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth." 2- "I am with you always, even to the end of the age."
10. I am a student as I attend Worship Services, Sunday School and Confirmation Classes. I am a student as I ask questions when I don't understand, pray for wisdom, etc.
11. I am a teacher when I set a good example for others; explain Jesus teachings to those who don't understand, etc.
12. As a student, I'm called to follow Jesus and learn from Him. As a teacher, I'm called to "fish for men" or for other people so they can become disciples of Jesus too. As a follower of Jesus, I will always be both a student and a teacher.

Catechism Corner

1. We must first look to God for the enlightenment of His Spirit and then read the Word with devotion and an earnest purpose to live according to it.
2. It is the will of God that all should use His Word and love it as a dear gift.
3. He is and taught (absolute) truth. His teachings bring spiritual life.
4. No—Jesus would not be a "good teacher" if what He said was not always absolutely true. A "good" teacher's teaching must stand the test of truth and his concern for his students would be that they know, understand and apply the truth.
