Joseph

An Ordinary Life in the Hands of the Extraordinary God

By Candice Johnson

This study, Joseph, An Ordinary Life in the Hands of The Extraordinary God, examines what some may consider mundane details in the life of Joseph. Let me remind you that "all Scripture is inspired by God..." (1 Timothy 3:15a). That means God is concerned with the seemingly mundane details or they would not have been included in the Scriptures.

Each lesson title in this study begins with the letter "F". Though no lesson focuses on FAITH, two truths are evident:

- Joseph was faithful to God
- God was faithful to Joseph

For whatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, that through perseverance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. Romans 15:4

Sweet Freedom's Song

By Mary Christenson

Sweet Freedom's Song will help us see how God, after preparing and giving us this land and having established this nation, has continued to be with us and work through His people throughout these decades in the United States. The biblical studies will be in the Psalms. We will not look so much at the political US history, but rather, the social and cultural experiences in our society from 1870 through the first quarter of the 20th century. The life applications will be reflective of people, experiences, or inventions of these times. The other portion of the study will show the direction and influence of Christians during that decade. The US history will be based out of Chicago and the Midwest. "He's God, our God, in charge of the whole earth. And he remembers, remembers his Covenant—for a thousand generations he's been as good as his word." Psalm 105 :7, 8

Freedom's Holy Light

By Mary Christenson

The desire and intent of America's forefathers was to establish a country which would honor and serve God. They were united and firm in their resolve to bring the Good News of God's love to the unknown wilderness. Faith and trust were evident in their lives and in the principles upon which they founded a new government. And God, Who is faithful, sustained, guided and instructed them as they sought His Wisdom. Dedicated men and women chronicled for us god's continual leading and His provision. The evidence testifies that God has been and is FREEDOM'S HOLY LIGHT.
